ART OF A CRAFTSMAN

JB LIDDLE & HOLLI TINGELHOFF

JB Liddle's passion for homebuilding was born in 1998 when he founded his own framing company. Fifteen years later, Liddle and Holli Tingelhoff created a partnership based on their mutual obsession - a love of building and renovating homes. Their joint effort to renovate a multitude of properties over the course of the next 5 years allowed them to find and define their own signature style. JB and Holli were then compelled to build bold and distinct custom homes from the ground up. This is how Art of a Craftsman Custom Homes was born. Backed by a team of hand-selected and talented craftsmen, this team transforms empty canvases into statement works of art. With unparalleled craftsmanship and experiences, Art of a Craftsman brings innovation and exceptional attention to detail to every project. Whether it's a renovation or a new construction project, our team will work with you to create a custom home that you and your family will love for years to come. Following our trademark 5-Step Process, we will guide you through every phase of construction. We take an overwhelming process and break it down into manageable stages that literally walk you through from pre-construction to handover.. all the while, ensuring that your vision and your dreams are coming to fruition. Our team of professionals is here to help you bring your forever home to life. We are excited to begin this journey with you!

NATHAN HOMES

NATHAN BUMGARDNER

Building homes since 2006 Nathan Homes understands your frustrations and it is easy to feel overwhelmed with the building process.

Growing up in the construction business in Hastings, Nebraska, Nathan Bumgardner understands what it takes to build the perfect dream home. Working alongside his father, brother, and uncles, his deep-rooted passion for construction began at an early age. Nathan graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, holds a Contractor's license in Omaha, is a Certified High Performance Home Builder, and is committed to continuing his education. When building, it is important to be confident that your builder is licensed and educated.

No stranger to his client's job sites, Nathan personally oversees each home along the way and supervises the entire process. The client's concerns are first and foremost with Nathan and his team, which consists of two full-time job supervisors (also finish carpenters), and two full-time Interior Designers. Overwhelmed by all of the decisions you will make? Don't worry, Nathan's designers guide you step-by-step through assistance with and organization of selections, as well as providing 2D or 3D imaging to help clients envision their new home.

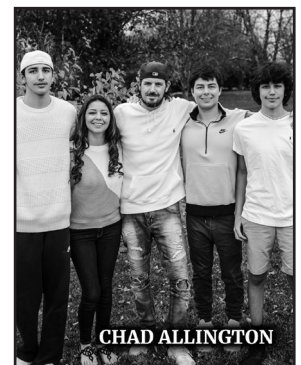

R&A BUILDERS

R&A Builders is setting a new standard for luxury homes.

Chad Allington began his career "hands on" by remodeling older homes throughout Omaha. When he moved into the custom home building arena almost 20 years ago, Chad created R&A Builders, Inc., (named after his two oldest children, Roman and Andres) and has become a trademark in the Omaha building community.

From the moment you walk into a R&A home, you can feel the craftsmanship and see it in the details - the blending of form and function in a superb fashion. We work with you to create your vision.

R&A offers extensive selections of architectural designs to suit any lifestyle and life stage. We have been fortunate to attract the finest craftsmen in this area who share our enthusiasm and dedication to creating a truly unique home of unsurpassed quality for our clients. Our suppliers furnish an exceptional level of materials. You can add all of your personal choices to create the perfect custom home for you and your family.

CHAD ALLINGTON

We strive to deliver an experience beyond compare and to exceed your expectations at every turn. The R&A team brings many years of know-how & craftsmanship to each home. Working in tandem with you, the homeowner, our team can assist you, from financing to interior design. Throughout the entire building process, R&A Builders, Inc. is there for you. Let's get together & discuss how we can help you with your new home.
